

WHO ARE THE KING'S REAL FRIENDS?

[Jerusalem] — When he taught the people in Jerusalem, Jesus told them to remember to obey the king. The people already had two kings. There was King Herod, who ruled their country. People didn't like Herod because he was so cruel.

There was also the emperor in Rome. But people in Jesus' country didn't like the Romans because they kept the people from being free and made them pay a lot of taxes.

Jesus said there is a king more important than Herod or the emperor. In fact, the real king is more important than any king in the world — or any president or ruler. The real king is God, and his Son, Jesus. Both of them have thrones in heaven. When the world ends we will all stand where the King of heaven can see all of us. He will tell us if we were his friends while we were living day by day. The king's friends help the people whom the king loves. These people are hungry and cold and need our help right now.
