

JESUS VISITS HIS HOME TOWN

(Nazareth, Galilee) — Jesus was getting ready to teach and preach God's message. He decided to begin in his hometown of Nazareth. He knew that some of the people in Nazareth might not listen to him. He knew they would say, "We knew you when you were just a small child. We used to help teach you. Do you think that you can teach us now?"

When Jesus got to Nazareth, he went to church. They let him read the Bible lesson. It was from the Book of Isaiah. Jesus read about how God's special messenger would rescue people who were in trouble. The people who were listening were sure that only God could do what Jesus' Bible reading said. But Jesus said, "These words from the Bible are talking about me."
